Glen Park early photo, note striped verandah roof

Name	Federation dwelling "Glen Park"
Address	74 Manganese Road
Property description
Comment	Federation roof form, Queen Anne details. Notable verandah entry portico in centre of symmetrical, hipped, bull-nosed verandah. The house is understood to have been built in 1908 for Charles and Mary Harveson and their family including 4 sons, one of whom went to WW1. The oldest son was called Charles Augustus, the same as his father Harveson sold to someone who sold to John Fraser senior who owned a dairy. He was later gored to death by his own prize dairy bull. Occupied at one stage by Wes Armstrong, and in 2006 by Mr and Mrs Smith. Photos of Harvesons in Museum.
